

A specialized training programme on planting stock improvement, clonal trials / testing is being conducted at IFGTB from 22 August to 2 September 2011 under the HRD Plan of Indian Council of Forestry Research and Education (ICFRE). Dr N. Krishna Kumar, Director IFGTB inaugurated the programme on 22 August 2011. 12 participants from different institutes of ICFRE are attending the training. Various topics covered under this programme include, quality planting stock production in casuarina, teak, bamboos, eucalypts, melia and ailanthus, principles of tree improvement, clonal forestry, clonal testing, progeny testing, biofertilizer applications to improve productivity, pest and disease management, tissue culture etc.

